

Essay competition on road safety held

FP NEWS SERVICE
Mhow

An essay writing competition on “road traffic safety management system” was organised, on Wednesday, as the third activity of Standard Club under the guidance of the Bureau of Indian Standards, Bhopal branch at Kendriya Vidyalaya, IIT Indore.

School principal Neelam Malviya encouraged the children and guided them children for the essay writing competition.

Pramod Kumar Mishra, the mentor teacher of the school highlighted the usefulness of various Indian standards. Students of classes 9th, 10th and 11th participated enthusiastically under the guidance of English teacher Shailesh Soni, mentor teacher of the standard club.

Tanmay Goyal, Sahas

Sharma, Shivanshi Lakshmi, and Divya Patel were placed first to fourth places respectively in the competition. The winners will be awarded cash prizes by the Bureau of Indian Standards, Bhopal.