

IIT Indore showcases four technologies at IInvenTive

OUR STAFF REPORTER
city.indore@fpj.co.in

IIT Indore, which participated in the second edition of India's largest research and development (R&D) fair, IInvenTiv 2024 which was held at IIT Hyderabad, showcased four of its technologies. The fair aimed at promoting inclusive involvement of the best institutes in India to develop a self-reliant and developed India by 2047. IInvenTiv 2024 was inaugurated by Dharmendra Pradhan, union minister of education and skill development, in the presence of K Sanjay Murthy secretary of higher education.

IIT Indore showcased technologies in the domains of Defence and Space Technology, Agriculture and Food Processing, Industry 4.0, and Affordable Healthcare. From a total of 250 technologies, 128 were selected to be showcased of which 04 were from IIT Indore.