PM SHRI KV IIT Indore celebrated an unforgettable Children's Day, combining a day of fun activities under the thoughtful guidance of Principal Neelam Malviya. The event was packed with exciting programmes that made the day truly memorable for all the students. The day began with a special Grandparents Day event for Balvatika and primary students. Chief guest Mamta Sharma, a retired music teacher, graced the occasion. One of the most touching moments of the programme was when students washed the feet of their grandparents.
