

Students Learn To Use Science For Benefit Of Humanity

IIT-I

Indian Institute of Technology, Indore, organised a special programme to cultivate and inculcate the interest of school students towards pursuing a career in science on the occasion of National Science Day. Eminent faculty talked on chemical illusion, demonstrations of scientific phenomena and a solar projection box for observing sun and sunspots. Over 60 students from prominent schools of Indore attended the event.

Times of India (Indore), 1st March 2019, Page-3