The Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Indore is hosting a three-day cultural extravaganza from January 17 to 19 under the Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth (SPIC MACAY) Regional Convention 2025. This iconic event celebrates the rich heritage of Indian art, music and dance, aiming to inspire the youth.

The opening day's highlights include energising sessions on Hatha Yoga and Naad Yoga, setting a serene and spiritual tone for the festival.

Next, there will be a captivating performance by Tarapadak Rajak, showcasing the vibrant and dynamic Purulia Chhau dance at the Nalanda auditorium of IIT Indore. The day will conclude with a Hindustani vocal performance by Pt Ulhas Kashalkar.

The second day's programme includes workshops and enchanting performances.

It promises to be a day full of enriching activities and classical artistry, including yoga by Swami Tyagrajananda, Hindustani vocal recital by Ustad Raja Miyan, dhrupad by Ustad Afzal Hussain, kathak by Vidushi Gauri Diwakar, Bagh printing by Mubarik Khatri and a Yoga Nidra session to rejuvenate the participants.

The concluding day's highlight is sitar recital by Ustad Shahid Parvez Khan.
