

Graduation ceremony of Balvatika 3 students held

FP News Service

MHOW

The graduation ceremony of Balvatika 3 students at PM Shri Kendriya Vidyalaya IIT Indore was a grand celebration of learning, growth and joy, held on Saturday. The event was marked by a sense of pride and achievement, as young minds took their first step towards formal education. The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome from school Principal Neelam Malviya, who delivered an inspiring welcome speech. In her address, Malviya expressed her joy at witnessing students' remarkable development over the year, emphasising the importance of nurturing creativity, curiosity and a love for learning in the early stages of education. The chief guest for the day was Anjali Joshi, a distinguished educationist known for her relentless dedication to the advancement of early childhood education. Joshi's encouraging words resonated deeply with students and parents alike, as she praised the school's efforts in providing a holistic and enriching educational experience. 'Education is the key to unlocking a world of opportunities, and today we celebrate the bright future ahead of these young minds,' Joshi stated with warmth and optimism. The highlight of the ceremony was the impressive ramp walk by Balvatika 3 students, who confidently walked across the stage, receiving applause for their poise and enthusiasm. This was followed by a beautiful dance performance by Balvatika 2 kids, who captivated the audience with their energy and coordination. Another unforgettable dance performance was delivered by Balvatika 3 students, showcasing their creativity and teamwork.