

New high as 813 get degrees at IIT-I convocation

The IIT-Indore held its 13th convocation on Saturday, where 813 students received their degrees, setting a new record for the largest graduating class in the institute's history. The institution witnessed substantial growth, with PhD graduates increasing by 60% compared to the previous year, alongside a significant rise in MTech graduates by two and a half times. P2