

IIT Indore Welcomes 502 UG Students, Launches B.Des Programme

IIT Indore held its Orientation Programme for 502 newly admitted-undergraduate students, including the inaugural batch of 16 students in the newly-launched Bachelor of Design (B.Des) programme. Major General Gautam Mahajan was Chief Guest. Director Prof Suhas Joshi emphasized holistic development and interdisciplinary learning. An eight-day orientation programme, 'Genesis' will introduce students to campus life, military training, life skills, wellness, and innovation. With the launch of B.Des, IIT Indore aims to align with future industry needs and continue evolving as a hub of technical education and creativity.

COLLEGE CAMPUS

BUZZ