

Swachh Indore Spreads The 'Go Green' Message

Pics: Pravin Barnale

INDORE ZOO, ARPF HOLD CYCLE MARATHON

Kamla Nehru Prani Sangrahalaya along with Animal Rehabilitation and Protection Front (ARPF) conducted a bicycle marathon from Rajwada to the zoo on Wednesday. Around 150 cyclists participated in the event on theme air pollution. It was followed by a plantation drive at the zoo and wildlife guided educational tour for participants.

URBAN HEALTH RESOURCE CENTRE FORMS HUMAN CHAIN

Urban Health Resource Centre formed a human chain with the help of 60 women and 15 youngsters on the eve of World Environment Day at Nand Bagh, Chhappan Dukan and Palasia. The aim of the exercise was to spread awareness towards conservation of water.

SIRPUR LAKE

(Compiled by Laveena Francis)

OVER 200 SAPLINGS PLANTED AT TRENCHING GROUND

Under Green Indore campaign, plantation was done on trenching ground by mayor Malini Gaud and IMC chairman Ajay Singh Naruka. More than 200 saplings were planted on the occasion. Gaud said "Earlier, all the garbage of the city was used to be dumped here. But, now, due to hard work of IMC people are present here with sapling for plantation."

POLLUTION CONTROL BOARD ORGANISES PAINTING, SLOGAN CONTEST

M.P. Pollution Control Board Indore and Pithampur offices organised a painting and slogan writing competition on the topic 'beat air pollution' and 'get free from once used plastic' respectively. The students were given two hours' time to complete their work of art. The competitions were divided in four categories.

IIT-INDORE

Indian Institute of Technology Indore organised a plantation drive, which witnessed participation of students, staff and faculty, including director of the institute. Director Pradeep Mathur said, "IIT-Indore is aggressively pursuing a sustainable green campus strategy by installing rooftop solar systems, extensive use of electric vehicles, cashless campus, plantation drives etc."

DEBATE CONTEST BY LIONS CLUB & DAVV

Environmental Protection Research and Development Centre and Lions Club of Indore east jointly under the aegis of DAVV's data science department conducted a debate competition on topic 'conservation of extinct wild species'. DAVV's School of Economics also conducted a plantation programme on the occasion.