Madhya Pradesh and Jharkhand have been paired for cultural and educational exchange activities. IIT (Indian School of Mines) Dhanbad is the nodal institution for Jharkhand, while IIT Indore is hosting the delegation in Madhya Pradesh. The contingent includes 37 youth delegates, comprising 24 men and 13 women, along with six coordinators from different parts of Jharkhand. Most participants are undergraduate students. The programme, scheduled from May 27 to June 2, aims to familiarise delegates with Madhya Pradesh's cultural heritage, traditions, technological progress and development initiatives.
