

IIT Indore Fluxus gets a musical start

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Inaugural night of Fluxus'20, the annual techno-cultural fest of Indian Institute of Technology Indore (IITI), was held with much pomp and grandeur.

"The ambience of IITI had become magical with the melodious tunes of SpicMacay reverberating through the air," said IITI PRO Sunil Kumar.

SpicMacay is a voluntary youth movement aimed at promoting Indian musical and culture amongst youth, which is in accordance with Fluxus'20's theme "An Archaic Insurgence" which blends with the traditional with modern.

The mesmerising words of Arun Jamini and Vishnu Saxena kept all spellbound on the campus during event of the night - Kavyanjali.

IITI officiating director Prof Neesh Kumar Jain inaugurated the event and a cloud of sky lanterns were released to officially kick off Fluxus'20.