

IIT-Indore conclave highlights importance of leadership

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Indian Institute of Technology, Indore on Friday kick-started a two-day leadership conclave under the 2nd edition of Netritva' 21 on the theme "Leaders for radical changes for an Atmanirbhar Bharat".

"The event is aimed at highlighting the importance of leadership skills in our lives as individuals and for the development of Bharat as a whole. The conclave is also expected to instill a sense of leadership quality in the budding minds and make the students aware of their powers and responsibilities towards society," said IIT Indore public relation officer Sunil Kumar.

It is going to be a three days' long event with leadership talks by eminent leaders from a plethora of fields on February 12 and 13. A student panel discussion will also be conducted with the panelists being the Students' Gymkhana, IIT Indore, and student representatives from institutes from Indore.

It aims to provide a platform to encourage students to become self-dependent and understand the essence of leadership.

IIT Indore officiating director Prof Neelesh Kumar Jain delivered the welcome address and Dr Santosh Kumar Vishvakarma, Dean of Students Affairs, IIT Indore, set the tone of the leadership conclave with the introductory address. Prof. Himanshu Rai, Director, IIM Indore gave the keynote of the talk.

The first session of the talk comprised of Anil Kumar Bharadwaj, advisor, Broadcasting and Cable Services, TRAI, Anuruddh Pratap Singh, national convener, IT and Social Media, BJP Kisan Morcha, and Dr. Satya Gupta, IESA chairman and CEO, Seedeyas.

The second session of the talk comprised of inspiring words from Naveen Kumar, politician; Anuj Sharma, chairman of EV Committee, Ministry of Road Transport and Highways; Gautam Gambhir, Member of Parliament and former Indian Cricketer; Hans Raj Hans, Padma Shri recipient, Member of Parliament, Singer; Vivek Agnihotri, Indian film director, and Nidhi Tripathi, national general secretary of ABVP.

