

IIT Indore's convocation on Nov 9

Indore: Indian Institute of Technology Indore is going to conduct its 9th convocation on November 9 in hybrid mode following Covid-19 crisis.

Principal scientific advisor to Central government, Dr K. J. Somaiya is going to be the chief guest of the function. Adviser to the Prime Minister, Amit Khare will be special guest of the convocation which will be presided over by IIT Indore board of governors chairman Deepak V. Phatak.

"Like last year, this year also the convocation will be held in hybrid mode," said IIT Indore PRO Sunil Kumar.