Three of the main attractions of Fluxus, the annual techno-cultural festival of Indian Institute of Technology, Indore this year would be a Sunidhi Chauhan concert, Sunburn Night and Campus Princess event. While Sunburn Night would be held on February 5, the singing sensation, Sunidhi would dazzle the crowd with her power packed performance on February 7.

The venue for the Chauhan concert is IIT Indore, Simrol Campus. Passes for the concert can be collected from any of the ticket centres in the city or from IIT-Indore, Simrol Campus. Ticket centres are located at Barista (Vijay Nagar), Gold's Gym (Vijay Nagar), Barista (Madhumilan Square), FYI (56 Dukan), Rolls Mania (56 Dukan) and Chick Blast (Tower Square).

February 5 will witness Sunburn Night, featuring India's leading EDM artist, DJ Shaan along with famous Canadian artist Miss Tara. The passes for Sunburn Night are available at 6 centres spread throughout the city. For details regarding the passes please visit the official Fluxus website.

On the night of February 6, the grand finale of Dance Prix and Voice of Fluxus will be held which will be judged by dance maestro, Terence Lewis and talented playback singer, Divya Kumar. The winners of Dance Prix will get a chance to join Terence Lewis Dance Academy.

Young beauties will show off their elegance in the Campus Princess Auditions, to be conducted in association with Miss India organization, which provides a golden opportunity to be the next Miss Universe. The beautiful Sagarika Chhetri, winner of Pond's Femina Miss India, Kolkata 2013, will be a part of the panel that will judge the Campus Princess Auditions.

Fluxus, IIT-Indore's annual Techno-Cultural College Festival is all set to raise the bar for college fests in central India in its 2016 edition. Apart from the series of technical and cultural events conducted during the three days of the fest, the shows have been a major attraction for youngsters from Indore and nearby cities as well.
