

IIT-Indore's annual fest gets off to a 'musical' start

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
INDORE

The 6th edition of central India's largest college festival, Fluxus-2016 began its journey with the inaugural night at the Indian Institute of Technology, Indore's Simrol campus on Thursday.

It was a perfect start to the 3-day 4 nights extravaganza that promises to offer a whole new level of celebrations to all those who are going to witness the carnival from February 5 to 7.

The inaugural night commenced with a melodious performance by the talented musicians of IIT-Indore. It was followed by a dance performance by the students of the institute who managed to create the perfect atmosphere for the occasion.

The highlight of the event was the performance by noted poet, Banaj Kumar Banaj. The beauty in the play of words certainly managed to touch the hearts of all who witnessed this eventful night.

The night concluded with the felicitation of the faculty members.

This year, as many as 55 events will be held during the fest.

The events have been divided into four categories— Cultural Cruise, Tech Theatre, Informal Bays and Quiz Fest.

As many as 25 competitions, including dance, music, singing, drama, painting, photography would be conducted under the Cultural Cruise, while Tech Theatre will feature 15 competitions including intelligesture, robo one, monopoly of circuits, to name a few.

A total of nine events including, treasure hunt, 47 seconds of fame and hydroshoot would be conducted under Informal Bays, the Quiz Fest will also see competitions including enigma, Bollywood quiz and lukkha quiz.

Besides these competitions, there are three main attractions of Fluxus including, Sunidhi Chauhan concert, Sunburn Night and Campus Princess event.