

Fourth convocation of IIT to be held on November 12

Indore: The Indian Institute of Technology, Indore (IIT-I) has finally announced its 4th convocation. It will be held on November 12 at its permanent campus in Simrol.

The institute had conducted its first two convocations in June in 2013 and 2014, but it held its third convocation ceremony last year in August. According to the official release of the institute, professor Ashutosh Sharma, secretary, Department of Science and Technology, will be the chief guest of 4th Convocation.

The release states that all students who complete (or have completed) all requirements for getting their degrees are compulsorily required to attend the pre-convocation rehearsal scheduled on November 11.

Candidates attending the convocation will have to give their consent and details of accompanying guests in a prescribed format available at the institute's website. Attire to be worn at the convocation will be issued before the dress rehearsal after a deposit of Rs 2,000 is paid. TNN
