

Fourth convocation of IIT Indore organised

HT Correspondent

✉ editorbhopal@hindustantimes.com

INDORE: The fourth convocation of IIT Indore was held at the Simrol campus of the institute on Saturday.

Prof Ashutosh Sharma, secretary, department of science and technology, Government of India, was the chief guest on the occasion. The institute's director Pradeep Mathur and several other dignitaries were also present.

The President of India gold medal this year was awarded to Vikas Raunak from computer science engineering branch, while the silver medal went to Juniper Gujral of computer science stream, Patil Ishan Ankur of electrical engineering and Vikram Vadiraj Katti of mechanical engineering stream.

Also the institute's silver medal for postgraduate programme was awarded to Priya Chauhan.

IIT Indore is an institute of national importance established by the central government in 2009. It is one of the eight new Indian Institutes of Technology (IIT) established by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India under The Institutes of Technology (Amendment) Act, 2011.

The first batch of IIT Indore graduated in the year 2013.