

Pradhan arrives in Indore, to hold meeting with IIT officials today

OUR STAFF REPORTER

city.indore@fpj.co.in Union minister of education Dharmendra Pradhan arrived in Indore on Monday evening to attend a series of events.

On Tuesday, he is going to attend a workshop on 'Promotion of Indian languages and the role of language institution in the implementation of NEP-2020' from 9.30 am.

He would also hold a meeting with IIT Indore officials at 5 pm and then proceed to Ujjain.

Local BJP leaders receive Union minister for education Dharmendra Pradhan at city airport on Monday evening

On Wednesday, he will pay obeisance at Mahakaleshwar Temple. After that, he would attend the inauguration function of Yajnashala auditorium at Maharshi Sandipani Rashtriya Veda Vidya Pratishthan at 9.30 am. Thereafter, Pradhan will participate in an international seminar on New Educational Policy 2020 and launch the book on NEP-2020 at Hotel Anjushree at 1 pm.

The minister will also visit Science City (Taramandal) at 12.30 pm and then return to Indore by 4.15 pm.

He is going to be a keynote speaker in a seminar organised to celebrate the birth centenary year of Kushabhau Thackeray at Amber Convention Center at 4.30 on May 4.

After completion of the programme, he will depart for Delhi in the evening.